

Tribute

Lisa Weiche,

You have been my best friend for about 8-9 years now. I would just like to say thank you for all the good times you have helped me in my life. Easy times, hard times, bad times, good times. Either way, it's all gravy.

This past year and last year were two really great years. I always like coming over. Even though I get annoying sometimes or may be grumpy sometimes. I'll still love you because I care for you and you are my best friend. I remember when I was like 14 and you lived in that other house with Tom and we played every single game we could with what we had. I miss those times. It was just that the smell was like you were in heaven; the sound was that you were in a Tropical Rainforest with all the animals yelling like crazy. I remember all the games that we used to play. Computer wise or even console wise. Smaller consoles like Super Nintendo. Lisa, you were my first real best friend that I've even had in my life. You are actually someone that means a whole lot to me. You've helped me in so many different ways; I just don't know how to thank you. So, I'm writing you this Tribute to tell you how I feel.

The reason why I write you this Tribute is to tell you how I feel and to let you know what I think about when I'm not around you. I'll never forget anything that we have done. We've been there for each other, cried in each others arms, talked together, drove to places, went out to eat, played together, etc. I would never want to hurt you in any way and I know the same for you to me. If I knew that I hurt you, (Feelings) then I would be even more crushed than you would be, just to know that I hurt my best friends feelings. The one person that I really love. The one person that can truly make a difference to people. Make people realize who they are and what they can become.

How all of this happened, that I may never know. How we got to become such great friends for such a long period of time, I don't think I'll know that. All I know is that we are friends and we both care for each other's feelings and everything else between us.

Then again, I'm just really, really happy to have known a person like you. To be this lucky to have a great friend like you. I want you to know that even though I may say things that are hurtful at times, I may never mean it at all. I just know that I love you and you'll be in my heart forever. There's always going to be a special place for you somewhere in me and I hope for the same in you.

Allen McCaslin